The beast of Revelation it often identified as some big, bad power seeking to control the world in the end of time, but behind that picture is a more subtle enemy. As a friend who listened to this message said, "It is so important to be aware of the awfulness of the 'beast' inside us that we all battle. It was when I began to realize the depths of my own sinfulness that the righteousness of Christ became very precious and vital to me." This month's message by James Rafferty, entitled, Battling the Beast, uncovers its character so that God's love can gain the victory over the selfishness in our own hearts which makes us part of the beast system.
