Hibernation is a state of reduced activity that occurs in some animals during the winter. This occurrence of nature uncovers some practical insights into a spiritual experience in Christ, as well as many other spiritual lessons. Jesus often directed us to nature to better understand the kingdom of God. In this month's message entitled, Spiritual Hibernation, James Rafferty parallels literal hibernation with spiritual hibernation so that we can discern whether we are renewed in Christ or spiritually hibernating in the coldness of the world.
